Dear Dr Hall -

Your dark-haired daughter Joan, bearing tenderly a dozen eggs, has just been to see me, & tells me that you sent the eggs down and said to give me some - well - I think that was just sweet of you & I do want to thank you very much -
The Knife-sharpener is still my pride & joy, and 2.

how I ever managed without it, I don't know - It's quite the best - One I've seen and my knives are guaranteed to cut anything these days!

We are sweltering down here - and I expect you station people are having a lot of worse heat up there - If only we could cool off at night it would be alright but - it seems just as hot at midnight as it is all day -

I don't see nearly as much of Joan as I used to, as she isn't keen on going home to Swanbourne at-night by herself. I miss her, as we used to see a lot of each other -

I haven't seen you since the dreadful tragedy of Dunrobin's death - It must have been a fearful shock to you all and Margaret must be so glad to have Joan with her to help -

Joan says you are coming down soon - Thank you again for your kindness Cheers from Doris
